A Lawyer of the Olden Times.

Peter Stephen Duponceau, who came from France to this country as private secretary to Baron Steuben, was admitted to the bar in 1785. His acquaintance with the languages of Continental Europe secured him a large practice, which did not prevent him paying much attention to the learned societies, of which he was a prominent member.

A young man called on him for advice and began his story thus: "Mr. Duponceau, my father died and made a will. 'Is it possible?' said Mr. Duponceau; 'I never heard of such a thing.' 'I thought it happened every day,' said the client.

"This is the first case of the kind that I ever heard of," said Mr. Duponceau. "Well," said the young man, "if there is likely to be any trouble about it, I had better give you a fee," which he did.

"Oh," said Mr. Duponceau, "now I think I know what you mean. You mean that your father made a will and died. Yes, yes; that must be it; that must be it," Philadelphia Progress.

The Pope's Personal Economy.

The monthly personal expenses of Leo XIII. are estimated to be only $300,000, against $6,000,000 for the former rulers at the Vatican. Leo says that while he lives on contributions he should spend with a careful hand. Soon after he became Pope it is related that he was one day walking in the Vatican gardens, and, noticing the fruit and vegetables, asked what was done with them. Being told that they were given away to different persons, whose names on paper were handed him, he read the list, and then tore it into small pieces which he let fall to the ground as he walked along. Soon afterward he let the garden, and the next day orders were received to give away no fruit and vegetables, but to send the surplus twice a week to market in the Campo del Fiori and render an account of it to the steward of the Vatican household.

Anecdote of Thad. Stevens.

When Thad. Stevens was a young lawyer in the Pennsylvania courts, he once lost his case by what he considered a wrong ruling of the judge. Disgusted he banged his law books on the table, picked up his hat and started for the door with some vigorous words in his mouth. The judge feeling that his dignity was assailed, rose indignantly, and said: "Mr. Stevens! Mr. Stevens stopped, and bowed deferentially. "Mr. Stevens," said the judge, "do you intend by such conduct to express your contempt for this court?" And Stevens, with mock seriousness, answered: "Express my contempt for this court! No, sir, I was trying to conceal it, your honor!"

An Important Personal Item.

Charles S. Prentice, of Toledo, Ohio, went to Paris and thence to England to be treated for Bright's disease, and after the best physicians of both countries had done what they could for him, gave up in despair and returned to America to die. Here he received further treatment from other skillful physicians without benefit, and while "listlessly" lingering in pain and anguish," as he says, "near of the Safe Kidney and Liver Cure, took it, and was completely cured in a few weeks. He gives circumstantial details of the painful experience and astonishing cure, in a long letter to H. H. Warner & Co., which will be found on application.

Cut.

A WORD TO THOSE WHO USE POROUS PLASTERS. It is a universally acknowledged fact that BENSON'S CAPSICUM POROUS PLASTERS ARE SUPERIOR TO ALL OTHERS. The great demand for them has caused a number of unscrupulous parties to make and sell worthless imitations under the name of Capsicum or Capsela. As the market is flooded with inferior plasters selling at any price it is important for the consumer to know which is the best. It is well known that some of the cheap plasters have been examined and found to contain injurious ingredients which make them dangerous to use, causing paralysis and other diseases. All genuine BENSON'S CAPSICUM PLASTERS have the word CAPSICUM cut in them. MANUFACTURED BY BENSON, Pharmaceutical Chemists, New York. PRICE 25 CTS. 21545 dool

THE GAZETTE.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 13, 1889.
CITY AND COUNTY.

BRIEFINGS.

The days are a little longer.
The cutters and sleighs are again being used for the roads.
A number of our citizens have gone to Madison to attend the opening.
The Sprague Minstrels (went to Brodhead to-day and will show up there to-night.)
It must be those afternoon prayer meetings. The police circles are remarkably quiet.
A gold sleeve button has been found in Lappin's hall. The owner can get it by calling at the Gazette office.
The arguments in the Henry case are now set for to-morrow. They have been set long enough to hatch out a decision soon.

Mr. Charles Dutton, who has been quite seriously ill for a few days, is able to be out again, though he has not recovered his usual vigor.

It was Fenner Kimball, instead of Frank Kimball, who was installed the other evening as W. M. of Janesville Lodge No 55 F. and A. M.

The old Lantry case is revived before Justice Brooks to-day. A good deal of time and money is being spent in trying to decide who ought to have that $30 gold piece.

Rev. W. R. Alger arrived from Chicago this afternoon. His lecture this evening will be delivered in the audience room of All Souls church, commencing at 8 o'clock.

To-night at All Souls church will be given one of the best lectures of the season, it being by Rev. W. R. Alger. He is widely known as an author and speaker, and should have a large audience.

The open air concert in the first ward are not proving successful. Some heartless fellow who has no music in his soul is dealing out poison to cats and dogs, and the bottles of the skin are found in the streets each morning.

Next Saturday evening Rev. Galusha Anderson, D. D., former pastor of the Baptist church of this city, and now President of the Chicago University, is to speak at Cannon's hall on "The Chinese Question." He is well versed on this subject, and is in every way capable of handling it intelligently. The theme is a practical one, and his views on it will prove of more than passing interest.

The news comes from Evansville that Pritchard, the marble cutter, has been arrested for taking part in the mutilation of tombstones in the cemetery there. It will be remembered that Craig, who has already been convicted, was in Pritchard's employ, and it is claimed that now there is evidence tending to show that Pritchard himself was mixed up in the affair. The trial is to take place next Monday before Justice Mills of Evansville.

Miss Dickie Lingard, supported by a full comedy company, is to appear in "Our Boys" at the Opera house, this evening. This will prove a rich treat indeed to the amusement lovers. Miss Lingard has already made a reputation and those who know her will gladly improve this opportunity of seeing her. She is a wonderful artist, and the comedy to be presented to-night is one of the most popular and successful ever presented to the public. She has already appeared in it 400 times, and it does not seem to wear out, but improves with age under her handling.

WEATHER.

REPORTED BY PRENTICE & EVENSON, DRUGGISTS.
The thermometer at 6 o'clock last night stood at 29 degrees above; at 1 o'clock a. m., to-day at 25 degrees above; at 7 o'clock a. m., at 25 degrees above, and at 1 o'clock p. m., at 41 degrees above.

The indications today are, for the lake region, falling barometer, warmer southerly winds, increasing cloudiness, and snow.

OAK HILL CEMETERY.

An effort is to be made to raise money by subscription to defray the cost of a permanent supply of water at the grounds of the Oak Hill Cemetery Association. We trust that this plan will meet the approval of the public, and that the required funds will be forthcoming.

Mr. J. C. Jenkins, Treasurer of the Association, has charge of the subscription paper, and will give all our citizens an opportunity to contribute their money to this worthy object. Let there be a liberal response to this call for help.

ASTOR HOUSE, New York, best accommodations, reduced price.

WHAT OTHERS SAY.

The Rockford News thus speaks of "Our Boys" which Miss Lingard and her troupe are to give here this evening:
It is an English society drama of the comic order, and has peculiarities of its own that make it pleasing to an audience. The play is well cast with this company, and is not marred by a dull or stick, every member of the company being a competent actor. The play moves forward naturally and easily, the comic portion being very little of the extravaganzas order, yet there is enough of the low comedy to enlist the keenest sympathy of those who usually exhibit their delight by coming down vigorously with the sole laughter.

HUMAN FREEDOM.

Last evening Mrs. Mattie A. Bridge delivered her lecture at Lappin's Music hall, on "Human Freedom." The audience was attentive, and was made up of those who could appreciate a really brainy effort, as this surely was. Hon. H. A. Patterson introduced the lecturer. Her appearance is not that usually presented by the feminine reformers. Of comely, rounded form, with a happy face, a sparkling eye, and a clear, sweet voice, she grasps the attention of the hearers from the very start, and holds it to the very finish. Her lecture last evening was a plea for humanity. She spoke from a heart which had known of sorrow and poverty, and which was running over with sympathy for other hearts now wretched. The lecture was full of thoughts, gracefully woven into beautiful language, thrilling with eloquence, enlivened by inspiration, and throbbing with sympathy.

In opening up the subject she spoke of the variety in nature, and the benefits of improvement and progress arising therefrom. As to the relationship of woman to man, she desired not for woman identical rights with man, but equal rights. Woman had a sphere natural to herself alone. This she should be allowed to occupy, and no one should attempt to thrust her from it, nor narrow its limits. It was natural for man to usurp power, and in this fact was involved the difficulty of solving many social problems.

The centralization of power in the hands of a few to whom came wealth and strength, while poverty and weakness fell upon the many, was the cause of ruin to many nations in the past. She pictured out the bane of monopoly, and after calling here and there from the history of other countries, the evils attending centralization and monopoly, she turned her thoughts homeward and handled some of the tendencies to monopoly in our own land. She spoke plainly and forcibly, and in closing made an earnest appeal for "a free press, free speech, free education, free religion, free money, free land and free votes by men who are born of woman who are free."

Mrs. Bridge started for Milwaukee to-day, and will deliver her lecture there this evening in response to a flattering call signed by a large number of the leading citizens of that place.

SAD AND SUDDEN.

Mrs. Leo Beers, who is acting principal of the Second ward school, and who resides on Wisconsin street, while at breakfast this morning, complained of not feeling well the latter part of the night, but told her husband she would probably feel better after taking her coffee. Soon after, she was struck with paralysis, and fell over unconscious, and has remained so since. Dr. Palmer was called at once, and everything that skill and tender attention could do is being done to save her, but the chances are strongly against her recovery, her left side seeming to be completely paralyzed. The event has caused much sadness and anxiety among her friends, of whom she has many, she having lived here for a long time. This afternoon Mrs. Beers showed signs of returning consciousness, and her case seemed more hopeful, but there is of course a liability of a sudden and sad change for the worse at any moment.

This sudden calamity necessitated a change in the corps of teachers to-day. Miss Minnie Pulker was transferred from the Central building, to the Second ward to take Mrs. Beers' place, and Miss Bertie Sayle was substituted in place of Miss Pulker, by which changes the schools will be provided for at present.

THE MINSTREL SHOW.

Last evening there was a very large audience to greet Sprague's Georgia Minstrels. The gallery was packed, and the lower part of the house was well filled. The drawing room concert, which occupied the first part of the programme, was very good, though drawn out to a rather tedious length. The end men were full of life, and the vocal music was fully up to the average. The olio which followed was rather slim. There was some good clog dancing, but aside from this there was little to merit special attention. The show as a whole was one of medium merit, there being much in it to amuse and entertain, but little to mark it as superior to any of the scores of like shows which are on the road. Most who attended had great expectations, but few of these expectations were met. There was nothing to subject the entertainment to severe criticism, and there was surely nothing which would call forth any enthusiastic praise.

WHAT? never? Never tried ST. JACOB'S OIL?

FULTON.

A very pleasant event took place at the residence of Mr. Mizz, town of Fulton, the evening of the 9th inst., being the anniversary of the 21st birthday of the old son, George. About thirty-five young people were invited, but owing to the bad roads a few of the chosen ones did not venture out. It was a surprise on George, but on the arrival of a few of his friends, he began to suspect the truth of the matter. The house rang with music, with vocal and instrumental, a good share of the time and very frequently a peal of laughter from those who were "bailing in the boat." None but an expert in the art of cooking could prepare such a supper as was given. No pains were spared to make it a very enjoyable affair; and as three o'clock in the morning found nearly all of the company still sailing in the boat to find Ruth and Jacob, we judge that it was entirely satisfactory to all parties. George was the recipient of some presents among which was a very handsome Bible, a present from his mother.

Liver Complaint and Indigestion.
DEAR SIR:—My business has been that of an engraver and carver in wood. Owing to confinement to ill-ventilated rooms my health gradually declined, when I was unable any longer to prosecute my business. At this time I was suffering from great prostration of strength, extreme indigestion and disordered liver. My usual weight was 135 pounds, but I had become so much emaciated that I weighed but 109 pounds. In the early part of May I commenced taking the PARKMAN SYRUP, and almost immediately felt its tonic and invigorating influence. In the course of four months I used four bottles. My weight this day is 149 pounds. I have neither liver complaint nor indigestion, but consider myself in a perfect state of health, and in good spirits. JAMES MONRO, No. 43 Pleasant St. Sold by all druggists. Charlestown, Mass. jan12dw

Catarrhal Poison!

Dr. W. D. Meyer's Treatise on Catarrh explains the following important facts:

1. That Catarrhal Colds become a poisonous infection, at first local, and finally constitutional.

2. That, being Constitutional, the infection is beyond the reach of mere local remedies.

3. That impurities in the nostrils, are necessarily swallowed into the stomach and inhaled into the lungs, thus poisoning the Digestive, Respiratory and Genito-urinary organs.

4. That Catarrhal virus follows the mucous membrane and causes Deafness, Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhea, Bronchitis, Leucorrhœa, and Consumption.

5. That smokes, Douches, Inhalations, and Isolation Souda, cannot possibly remove infection in inflammation from the organs named.

6. That an antidote for Catarrh must possess an incontestable affinity for, and the quality of being absorbed by, the purulent mucus wherever located.

Based upon these plain theories, Dr. W. D. Meyer's Catarrh Cure has proved to be infallible. It not only relieves, it cures Catarrh at any stage. Home testimony:

W. D. Woods, 487 Broadway, N. Y., cured of Chronic Catarrh.

F. J. HARRIS, 559 Broadway, N. Y., 4 yrs Catarrh.

L. F. NEWMAN, 393 Fulton St., Brooklyn, cured of 4 years Chronic Catarrh.

Mrs. J. SWARTZ, 30 Warren St., Jersey City, cured of 15 years Chronic Catarrh.

&c. &c. &c. &c. &c.

A Real Cure for the terrible malady, is the most recently discovered for the relief of Catarrh, suffering, since vaccination. Dr. W. D. Meyer's Catarrh Cure is sold by all druggists, or by Dr. W. D. Meyer & Co. 46 Bay St., N. Y., for $1.50 a package. To Ulcers, six packages for $7.50. Dr. W. D. Meyer's Treatise, with explanations and overwhelming proofs, is Post-paid and sent free to anybody.
